PARDONS.

PARDONS.

All Governors make some mistakes in granting pardons, but the fault most generally is with those in whose integrity they have faith and who successfully deceive. Gov. Beckham doubtless has made some of these mistakes. But that it has been used with more frequency and with political designing, the publishing of comparisons between the world and the predecessors refutes and proves what straits the opposition is put to.

The C. M. Ewing. being heigt have in-

NO PARDON.

It has been said by some fellows who had little regard for truth that Governor Beckham if re-elected Governor would pardon Jett and White, convicted for the murder of Marcum, Republican. Governor Macum, Republican. Governor Mechanic considered the law and believes in the guilt of these defendants and says they will never, so long as he is Governor be pardoned.

The large enthusiastic crowd of Democrats which gathered at Winchester on Saturday is proof of the moderal forms of the party in the welfare of Kentucky. It gives further evidence that the people are thinking, reasoning and will vote after mature deliberation, according as See Guthrie Clo. Co., 10, 11, 12.

reason may direct them. Republicans have been put on trial as to what they would do if allowed control of the administration and the costs for this experiment continues to pile up. All citizens of what ever party affiliation would do well osts for An o pile up. An o pile up. An over party affiliation we pause and consider.

FOR RAILROAD SIONERS. COMMIS-

The candidates for the Democratic nomination for Railroad Commissioners of this district to be settled by a convention to be held here September 21, are men of ability, just with sufficient courage to act. Dr. A. Gatliff, of Whitley, is highly recommended as well fitted for the position. He is a farmer and dealer in coal; and likewise is Judge Ren Dishman, of Bell. Democrats cannot make a mistake in deciding be tween these gentlemen. When nominated we would urge people to see the candidates fitness and vote according to merit. This done there would be no show for the election of the Republican nominee.

PARDONS.

Now that the number of pardons granted by Governor Beckham, collected from the records and given to the people destroys the opposition statement that "Governor Beckham has abused the parton becket and the parton becket doning power resulting in murders, factions and heavy costs to the State." It is time to shut up.

Democratic Convention.

Democratic Convention.

At a meeting of the Democratic Committee of the Third Commissioner's Railroad District of Ky, held at Winchester on Saturday, September 5, 1903, it was ordered that a District Convention be held in Mr. Sterling, Ky, on September 21, 1903, at 1 o'clock, p. m., for the purpose of nominating a Democratic candidate for said office in said district.

said district.

It was further ordered that a convention be held in each county in said district at the respective Court Houses, at 2 o'clock, p. m., on Monday, September 14, 1908, for the purpose of selecting delegates to attend said district meeting.

That each county should be entitled to one delegate for each two hundred votes or fraction over one hundred votes, east for W. J. Bryan in 1900.

Three toughs, well known to the police, boarded a southbound Illi-nois Central train at Louisville, stopped it and overpowered the oad's private policeman when he attempted to put them under ar-rest. Warrants have been sworn out. It is believed that the men planned a robbery.

Publicity the Wisest Policy.

Publicity the wisest Folio.

There has been published a list of parlons issued by Governor Brekham and a comparison made between the pardons granted by him during his administration and by Governors Bradley and Brown during their respective administrations. The Louisville Herald, the Evening Post, and perhaps other anti-Heckham newspapers allege that this list is defective, and print the names of certain convicts who have been pardoned by Governor Beckham. It is also charged that this list is defective in not includible. Beckham. It is also charged that this list is defertive in not includ-ing several classes of pardons, and that from it are also omitted the names of those convicts who have been paroled by the Prison Com-mission during the present administration. For these paroles Governor Beckham is not officially reernor Beckham is not officially re-sponsible, nor is he personally re-sponsible unless it may be in some few special cases. And it is not fair to charge either him or his associates on the ticket with these paroles. We were earneally poped ed to the Prison Commission act, and we have regarded the decision of the Court of Appeals affirming its constitutionality lamentable judicial opinion in our judicial history. It practically formed an amendment, and a most mischievous amendment, constitution and introduced a ne form of government in Kentucky

The Fortunate South.

The remarkable prosperity in the South is illustrated by the remark of a Louisville bank president that for the first time he had every sine sine were in better condition any other part of the country. It was a reasonable probability of big profits from the aforesaid properties, that the money kings of big country and practical and experienced men with personal knowledge of the situation would gobble up these wealth promising localities quicker than a cat could wink its eye? Usually the best customers for shares of stock in these concerns of big promise are men of comparatively small means, who are infatuated with the idea of quick and increased returns, who are assily persuaded to invest a few thundred dollars in these catchy schemes, with the expectation of quick and increased returns, who are easily persuaded to invest a few thundred dollars in these catchy schemes, with the expectation of waking up some fine morning to find themselves rich. The country is full of suckers that readily sealed morning to find themselves rich. The country is fall of suckers that readily sealed only shapers with mining stocks for sale.—Georgetown Times.

One of the most striking exam One of the most striking exam-ples of the warlike instinct in the people of the mountains is young Dexter Howard, who is now under indictment at Jackson for mali-ciously wounding James Barrett early in July. He is but thirteen years of age, and appears but about ten. He has a bright, hon-est face, and is frank and outspo-ken. He shot at James and John Barrett because he believed they were going to attack his father. Barrett because he believed they were going to attack his father, Mack Howard, and he gave the two men a hard battle, finally driving them into a deep ravine. During the fight the lad dodged bullets from the "45" fired by James Bar rett and returned the fire with a Winchester shotgun aslong as himself, Young Howard and his father were driving along the road leadself. Young Howard and his father were driving along the road leading from Jackson to their home on Cane Creek. Mack Howard and the Barretts had had trouble a day or two before, and it is believed by many (and the belief is such a stained by the indictment against Howard) that he was following the Barretts. They met near a school house in a ravine, and young Dexter Howard who was driving the "nag" dropped the reins and open "nag" dropped the reins and op-ed fire on the Barretts. Ma Howard is paralyzed in his low limbs and is unable to stand.
